Warriner's English Grammar and Composition. This was published in 1977, and I have it on good authority that it's still used in high school English classrooms in a local, highly ranked, school district. It is, in fact, the book that I used in English class when I was in Junior High. Or similar: there are 5 levels published independently ...

Some of them have been helpful, others have languished on my bookshelf with only a few pages done. This book I bought because it looked a little similar to what I used in junior high, & after I received it, I realized I did indeed use one of the Warriner editions decades ago. The textbook is really old-school, which was what I wanted.
